- Note 7. The RESPA Rule to Simplify and Improve the Process of Obtaining Mortgages and Reduce Consumer Settlement Cost includes a provision for average charges, allowing settlement service providers to establish an average recording fee. Transactions closing in January 2010, the average recording for all residential loan transactions (including refinances) is $79.00 and the charge for all residential sale transactions with a purchase money loan is $82.00, Transactions closing after January of 2010, the average recording charge for loan transactions (including refinances) is $93.00 and the charge for all residential sale transactions with a purchase money loan is $98.00. Divide the average charge between the buyer and seller as per contract or local custom. The average charge is applied regardless of the number of documents recorded in the transaction. If your transaction is not a residential loan or sale with a new loan, please contact your title provider for actual recording charges.
- Note 8. Part of the RESPA Rule to Simplify and Improve the Process of Obtaining Mortgages and Reduce Consumer Settlement Costs requires the settlement agent to disclose the agent and underwriter split of the premiums, including endorsements as follows:
- Line 1107 is used to record the amount of the total title insurance premium, including endorsements, that is retained by the title agent. Fidelity National Title Company retains 88% of the total premium and endorsements.
- Line 1108 is used to record the amount of the title insurance premium, including endorsements, that is retained by the Title underwriter. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company retains 12% of the total premium and endorsements.
